

SCHOOL BASED MENTAL HEALTH ECHO SERIES

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Our goal is to develop a school-based mental health ECHO that increases understanding of and engagement in delivering school-based mental health care. This series will support Nevada school professionals by covering key topics such as care models, screening, consent, and team collaboration through case-based learning and shared strategies to support student health.

REGISTRATION QR CODE

WEDNESDAYS AT 4 PM | 75 MIN

Back to the Basics: ECHO Intro & What Schools Need to Know About Student Mental Health

February 18th

Diagnosis Decoded: Myths, Truths, and Mislabels in Student Mental Health

March 4th

ADHD at School: From Diagnosis to Daily Impact

March 18th

Quiet Worries, Big Impact: Anxiety Through a School Lens

April 1st

Depression Through a School Lens: What Educators Need to Know

April 15th

From Warning Signs to Action: Suicide Risk Identification in Schools

April 29th

<https://tinyurl.com/SBMHWinter2026>

University of Nevada, Reno

School of Medicine

Project ECHO